CONTENTS

Foreword
Robert Freeman vii

Preface xi

I. PEDAGOGY OF THE ORGAN

Russell Saunders, Master Teacher: A Biographical Sketch
David Craighead 3

The Pedagogy of Russell Saunders
John A. Ferguson 17

J.S. Bach as Organ Pedagogue
George B. Stauffer 25

II. ISSUES OF PERFORMANCE PRACTICE

Gigault’s Dots: Or, Notes Inégales “Wie Sie Eigentlich Gewesen”
David Fuller 47

Bach and Grave
Sandra Soderlund 77

“We Have No Idea of the Liberty With Which Franck Played His Own Pieces”: Early French Recordings of César Franck’s A-Minor Chorale and the Question of Authenticity
Lawrence Archbold 83
III. STUDIES OF MUSICAL SOURCES

An Unknown Organ Tablature at Harvard: A Preliminary Report

Christoph Wolff

The Apparatus Musico -Organisticus of Georg Muffat

Michael Radulescu

German Organ Tablature in Handel’s Autographs

Alfred Mann

IV. HISTORICAL STUDIES

Difficulties in Understanding the Earliest Organs

Peter Williams

Frescobaldi’s Musical Tributes to Ferrara

Patrick Macey

Partners in Music Making: Organist and Cantor in Seventeenth-Century Lübeck

Kerala J. Snyder

Fantasy and Fugue on the Chorale “Ad nos, ad salutarem undam” from the Opera Le Prophète by Meyerbeer

Martin Haselböck

Brahms and the Organ—Redivivus: Some Thoughts and Conjectures

Wm. A. Little